

EVERY CITIZEN OF MACLEOD & DISTRICT

is interested in the

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT OF THIS COMMUNITY

Remember Then That:

The business of a town is its very life-blood.
The stores and business houses are not alone for the merchants.
Prosperous merchants will make the community prosper.
The more buyers there are in a town, the greater "turn over" the merchants will have, and thus the more they will be able to reduce prices and increase the quality of the goods they sell.

Thus By Trading at Home with the home town merchants the people of Macleod become the builders of their own community.

No True Citizen

will stunt the natural growth and expansion of his home town by fostering the mail order business of far away communities.

Buy At Home

not to help the merchants, but to help the home community and yourself.

marked Canada's strides forward from an embryo — an undeveloped colony to the position of an enviable position among the lovely and prosperous daughters of a great and dignified parent — Great Britain — mother of powerful colonies whose trade and commerce griddles the earth with garlands plucked from the commonplace gardens that yield the blossoms of ambition and industry and interwoven with exotic blossoms — garden flowers garnered from the garden paths of the world's art and culture — from which might be plucked a wreath of laurels worthy for the crowning of a worthy King — God save King George and bless the Empire — grant the colonies their unfolding as in the past — their blossoming as the Rose of Sharon — Long live the British Empire — Long live Great Britain's King.

The three days Carnival proved a great success although of course Friday July 1st was the big day.

The "Hells Bells" were kept busy both Friday and Saturday evenings and their hallowing experts did not let upon their work till after midnight each evening. The booths did a big business, although the "House-boats" held the largest and biggest crowd. The jiffy dancers proved a big attraction and big crowds were handled every evening. Miss Nellie Walker, of the Empress Hotel staff, was the holder of the lucky ticket drawn for the big Chrysler coach on Saturday evening and Miss Walker is now en route to Vancouver for the Leithbridge, which was then published a weekly paper. Mr. Clark with his brother, published the Macleod Advance. After 12 years as an editor, he decided to return to his old hometown, going back to Meaford. There he was appointed chief of police, which position he now holds. It was to visit the annual convention of the Association of Police Chiefs that he went to Vancouver recently.

The localicals are more than pleased with the outcome of the bigger success than last year.

The sports held on Friday afternoon drew a big crowd of adults and, and as every youngster was presented with five tickets for the purchase of ice cream, lemonades or candies it can be imagined the cooling beverage vendors did real business. One of the chief attractions was the tug 'war contest between five fifteen teams, in which the husky bunch of farmers from Orion proved the easy winners.

Another amusing attraction was the group pig contest, and the Handi little piglets were awarded twenty-five dollars for the animal.

Afternoon nearly five hundred people paid to see the last ball game of the season when Hill-spring and the local aggregation locked horns on the home diamond.

After a real clever game of ball looked upon as having been the best of the season when Macleod was leading by a score of three to two, but the southern lads made a great rally in the seventh and with Macleod piling up had back, the score finished with a four run lead for Hill-spring.

Monday evening the Jubilee celebration was a fitting celebration by an historic town, the 60 years of progress which has marked Canada's strides forward from an embryo — an undeveloped colony to the position of an enviable position among the lovely and prosperous daughters of a great and dignified parent — Great Britain — mother of powerful colonies whose trade and commerce griddles the earth with garlands plucked from the commonplace gardens that yield the blossoms of ambition and industry and interwoven with exotic blossoms — garden flowers garnered from the garden paths of the world's art and culture — from which might be plucked a wreath of laurels worthy for the crowning of a worthy King — God save King George and bless the Empire — grant the colonies their unfolding as in the past — their blossoming as the Rose of Sharon — Long live the British Empire — Long live Great Britain's King.

PIONEER PRINTER VISITS OLD SCENES

One of Macleod's pioneer printers revisited the scenes of his early day activities when Fred Clark took a day off on his way home from Vancouver to Meaford to come to the city and review old acquaintances. Mr. Clark came to Macleod in 1890. He arrived on Saturday evening with Edward Hagell, and both went to work for the Leithbridge News, which was then published a weekly paper. Mr. Clark with his brother, published the Macleod Advance. After 12 years as an editor, he decided to return to his old hometown, going back to Meaford. There he was appointed chief of police, which position he now holds. It was to visit the annual convention of the Association of Police Chiefs that he went to Vancouver recently.

EMPRESS CONCERT ORCHESTRA

THE EMPRESS THEATRE — CURRENT ATTRACTIONS

WYNN'S "RUBBER HEELS" A LIVELY LOAD OF LAUGHTER

Don't tell a soul but—"Rubber Heels" is due to sneak into town next Wednesday and Thursday. Ed Wynn's comedy of a correspondence school detective will be flashed on the Empress screen and present famous stage comic as a Paramount star for the very first time. Wynn's long career needs no recording. It has been in vaudeville and musical comedy for years. You can see his fingers and has yet to appear in a "single flop." That's a record at the theatre.

"Rubber Heels" is the amusing tale of Anne Wynn. Anne occupies position in Tenyson Hawks' detective agency but doesn't last long as he soon finds things that aren't quite right. In reality, Hawks is the leader of a gang of thieves who hide jewelry while posing as detectives in order to obtain the rewards offered for the return of such property as they steal. Later, Anne decides to do a bit of "free lancing" as he contracts to guard a chest of valuable foreign crown jewels at a society function and is getting along remarkably well until Tenyson and his friends get busy. Then the fun begins and doesn't let up until Anne finds himself drifting with Niagara Falls waiting to receive him with open arms!

Chester Conklin, featured, heads Wynn's supporting company. Thelma Todd, Robert Andrews, Trudy Tatlock and John Harrington also enact important roles. Victor Heerman directed. J. Clarkson Miller prepared the screen play.

FIRST LANGDON FEATURE ON "TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP" COMING TO THE EMPRESS NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Harry Langdon, First National comedy king, is due to arrive at the Empress Theatre next Monday and Tuesday in his first feature length comedy, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp."

With this picture the noted comedian steps into the super-comedy class of Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd. Under the terms of his recent contract with First National he is to appear in a series of feature length comedies.

The story of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" is an original with Langdon and one which he has had in mind for some time. It deals with a cross-country walking race.

One of the numerous exciting and diverting episodes in "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" is a hilarious scene in which the comedian is chased by a mob of about two thousand sheep in his new seven-reel comedy, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," which has just completed its first theatrical release. The film is coming to the Empress theatre here next Monday and Tuesday.

The comedian notes the woolly animals for one of the episodes in the picture. The film shows Langdon quite marvellous in sheep. (Continued on Page Three)

The Red Cross appeals to YOU for support

SINCE the War, the Red Cross has disbursed over Seven Million Dollars for the Soldiers, Women, Children and Frontier Families of Canada.

About half of this has been spent for disabled soldiers—half in the other services of the Society about which you have been told. The Treasury is almost empty.

$1,000,000 Needed Now for Red Cross Work

The Red Cross brings cheer to our disabled warriors and their families. It stimulates the children of Canada to healthy living and good citizenship. It relieves suffering, and brings skilled attention to Canada's frontier districts remote from other aid. Its work is indispensable.

It now appeals to YOU, as a patriotic and humane Canadian citizen, to contribute generously to its need for funds.

The Wheat Pool Method is Vindicated by Experience

The fact that the Alberta Wheat Pool has increased its membership by some 14,000 farmers since it was formed, offers strong proof of the success of this farmers' marketing organization. The membership in 1923 was 25,000 (in round figures). Today it is approximately 39,000.

ACKNOWLEDGE THE POOL HAS HELPED

The stabilizing effect of the operations of the Canadian Wheat Pool in the Wheat Markets of the World is acknowledged by leading Old Country importers, millers and bakers.

Practically all non-Pool farmers admit the Pool has helped and is helping them. There is no good reason why any farmer in Western Canada with grain to sell should not market it through the Pool. Every new Pool recruit adds to the influences of the organization. Businessmen, professional men and statesmen all testify to the beneficial effects of the operations of the Wheat Pool.

Outside the private dealers in grain, and kindred interests The Wheat Pool has no enemies!

IS THE POOL NOT WORTHY OF YOUR SUPPORT

No matter what anyone says to the contrary, the Wheat Pool has exerted an upward tendency on prices both in and out of Canada. The Pool has meant fair dealing to the farmers and a more satisfied and contented countryside. It has meant "better living" for Alberta Farmers.

Are these not worthy objects? Has not the achievement of the Wheat Pool been a notable one? Is it not worthy of your active and loyal support?

The Second Series Contracts are now ready.

Winnipeg, July 2.—According to the latest statistics the prospective strength of the Bracken government in the next legislature is 30, a gain of two seats. The Conservative party is now 13 seats, Liberals five, Labor three, and independent one.

The government is headed by fair margins in three other constituencies, Conservatives in one riding and Liberals in two. The result in these doubtful seats is not expected to be definitely known until Monday.

In St. Boniface there is a probability of a recount. Results of second and third choices, placed L. P. Garneau, Liberal, ahead of the Conservative sitting member, Jos. Bernier, Conservative, by one vote. A dispute exists as to the validity of the result.

Following the story, Langdon, who is supposed to be in a cross-country walking race, cuts into a field in the hope of effecting a short cut, but finds himself in a sheep-meadow instead.

The sheep presented no difficulty to the comedian, although several of the old rams fancied he meant to take them to market and offered to jolt him with their horns. He was not harmed.

The sheep were gathered together from several sheep farms near Hollywood. The animals were laced and branded to prevent their becoming mixed.

Harry Edwards directed "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp." A corps of six musicians added him. The supporting cast included Joan Crawford, Tom Murray, Alec Francis, Edwards Davis and Brooks Benedict. "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" is the first of the feature-length comedies that Langdon will make for First National under the terms of his recent contract with that company.

ED WYNN REVERSES USUAL PROCESS IN "RUBBER HEELS"—AT EMPRESS WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—ALMOST GOES TO GRAVE AT NIAGARA FALLS: NOT A SIGN OF HONEYMOON!

Ed Wynn, famous comedian, is still recovering from the effects of an experience at Niagara Falls, the famous honeymoon Mecca, where an attempt to introduce a convincing touch of realism into the Paramount film production "Rubber Heels" in which Wynn is starred, carried him to the very brink of the falls.

Hundreds of spectators along the shores of the St. Lawrence at first applauded Wynn's daring as he stood in a box drifting down the river toward the American Falls, but as he neared the edge women screamed and men gasped. Wynn stood nonchalantly in the box, without knowledge of his close proximity to the edge. The box was on a barge representing a large cake of ice and was fastened to a wire tied to an iron piling in the middle of the river. The barge had been pulled into midstream by thirty men in hip boots, tied together with safety lines fastened on shore.

As the box drifted down, the barge was turned around by means of steel wires to give the camera effect of the box and barge going into reverse. At this stage, Wynn who had been looking up the river suddenly faced the falls and only then realized the significance of the screaming on shore. The box had drifted so close to the edge that Wynn could peer over the falls straight down to the bottom of the chasm. Realizing his danger, Wynn quickly crouched down and clammed the lid, a signal ending the scene. The box was then pulled back into shallow water and Director Victor Heerman went to the comedian's assistance.

Residents at Niagara Falls say that Wynn is the first person who has ever looked over the falls from the river without going to a watery grave.

Although a bit weary from his experience, the comedian giggled cheerfully the next day as he described the adventure and declared he would post a $1000 reward to any person who accomplished a similar feat.

"I would not repeat it for $100,000," he said.

The picture "Rubber Heels" is Wynn's first screen experience. It comes to the Empress next Wednesday and Thursday. In the scene he (a detective) appears to be plunging over the falls in a large jewel box which he has been trailing. It was impossible for him to be secured in the box or to employ a double as he was being photographed in full figure and at fairly close range. However, Mr. Wynn is still alive to tell the tale and in a tale it is!

REACH & COMPANY, Ltd.

GENERAL MERCHANTS—DRY GOODS, LADIES AND MEN'S UNDERWEAR, HATS AND HOSIERY, GROCERIES, VEGETABLES AND FRUITS.

The excitement is over, and now we must work. Everyone enjoyed themselves amazingly. A little heavier weather dampened the spirits of the fine voices or the swarms. We noticed that the various shoes bought from Reach & Co., seemed to revel in the damp weather. The patent leather's came out strong and added to the general smart appearance of the fair sex. Then they are so easily cleaned, a vandy bag is easily carried and a piece of chamois leather will put the finishing touches on so you can see as in a looking glass.

HOSIERY—We have just put on the bargain table a few dozen of Hosiery hosiery. These remarkable hose have held their own and we came across one or two pairs that, had the old selling and cost tag on. The price was $2.75 and sold more readily than any other kind in the market. Then the cutting commenced and they were dropped to $2.50, $2.25, $2.00 and $1.75. Now we have a few dark shades, all silk of the best days. We are putting them at the price of $1.00. Remember one dollar for a pair. Dark shades are all that's left. We have also a limited lot of hosiery, cotton, art silk, one especial lot of art silk will soon be snapped up, wears just as good as the higher priced makes in the market—fifty cents per pair—fifty cents.
